

Xalles Holdings Inc. Announces Completion of Reverse Merger

Washington, D.C. - August 21, 2015 – Xalles Holdings Inc., formerly known as Stella Blu Inc., announced today that it completed a reverse merger on July 14, 2015 with Xalles Limited, a Delaware corporation specializing in payment solutions consulting, ArrowVista Corporation, a Delaware corporation specializing in auditing, and Xalles Singapore Pte. Ltd., a Singapore corporation for international holdings. In exchange for the issuance of certain shares to each company’s existing shareholders. Xalles Limited, ArrowVista and Xalles Singapore will become wholly-owned subsidiaries of Xalles Holdings.

Xalles has created the financial, structural and resource backbone to support investee companies and external client projects. This backbone consists of senior payment solutions consultants and a proprietary system for the financial reconciliation and auditing of business and government payment transactions.

Xalles, through its 3 core services, provides the company with high growth opportunities with assets on the balance sheet combined with recurring revenue streams for progressive income.

“We’re excited to announce this reverse merger transaction which has allowed us to rollup multiple Xalles related companies into a public holding company. This has provided the opportunity to refine our business model to now include investment and support services to selected strategic partners inside the Xalles family.” said Thomas Nash, CEO of Xalles. “We have taken this opportunity to provide additional transparency to investors and give them the opportunity to invest in a portfolio of companies, all within the dynamic payment solutions industry.”

Shares of the Company’s common stock are quoted on the OTC Marketplace under the symbol “XALL”. The OTC Marketplace, which is provided and operated by the OTC Markets Group, offers trading in a wide spectrum of equity securities through any broker.

About Xalles

The Xalles vision is to become the dominant provider of payment solutions for “payment-proximate” partners. This is accomplished through a rollup of strategic partners launching financial supply chain solutions to underserved markets. The team implements game changing solutions into emerging market segments. The recurring revenue streams include services, audit recovery, and revenue sharing licenses of our technology. Our breadth spans Government, business and consumer oriented projects. Xalles is headquartered in Washington, DC with subsidiaries in Brazil, Singapore and the U.S.
